A Temp Agency Recruits at a Career Fair

Goal: Attract career fair attendees to the booth and be remembered long after the fair.

Product: #6673xx Mini Pully Pal

Application: Who throws away adorable, cuddly, huggable, squeezable animals? The temp agency's promotional consultant knew the answer... NO ONE! That is why they chose a Pully Pal for a career fair to attract attendees to their booth. Each attendee who came to the booth and signed up for more information and their e-mail blast program received a cow Pully Pal with the message, "Steerin' you to Success." The agency wanted an item that would be remembered and kept on the desk or in the home so their promotional message would be repeated daily.

Result: The Agency was able to attract four times more attendees to their booth than the previous year, and as a result, added four times as many people to their e-mail blast recipient list, and they had a huge increase in recruits.
